

Lecture 4: Normalization

A relation is in third normal form when every non-key attribute depends on the key, the whole key, and nothing but the key.